In Ephesians 6: 10-18 we see a description of the armor of God, but most of us remember it only through verse 17. It encourages us to have this weapon with us at all times and on every occasion. This is the weapon that clobbers the enemy and leaves him wondering what in the world hit him. In the pages of this book you'll find lots of ways for kids to use their Secret Weapon. They are intended to tap into a variety of multiple intelligences so that kids can experience fervent prayer and understand the potential of their Secret Weapon.
