Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book embraces the strange dreams and hopes of a wealthy Japanese businessman. Through his greed for power, he creates a human experiment that turns into a real life adventure. His dream is to prove that the Egyptians built pyramids with their minds and were even able to fly. Two scientists end up in New York City in search of a newborn. Through their lack of experience in American Culture, they are confronted with hilarious and sometimes dangerous situations. After the passing of twenty years on an island, the experiment is terminated and a young man is released into the custody of a nurse. She brings him back to the States to a world that he has never seen. She attempts to educate him into manhood. But unfortunately, just after a few days, they are separated and he is left alone in a world so different than his own. His only survival is through the innocence and purity of his heart and how he touches others in his travels.
