Frank Ava: Unrequited Love

By Frank Gariboldi

Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.How did Sinatra learn to sing the way he did? What was his secret? What was his technique? What made him the number one interpreter of the music of his time? Why does everyone call the songs that Sinatra sings, his songs? This is a book that stirred in my heart over a dozen years ago. Through much research and study of Frank, the music and his life, I have put together this very intriguing story of a man in search of a dream, a dream that finally comes true, but with much pain and anguish. As Frank said, . . some people get their kicks stomping on a dream. And stompers there were, and some very close to Frank. This is a story of love and heartache, it is a story of a driven man on his way to the top of the showbiz world. Music, movies and romance, Frank did it all. And when he arrives at the top, it is still not enough. I believe that Frank would have wanted to die on the...
