If you love someone with an addiction, you're probably familiar with these emotions. As the wife of an alcoholic, Alyssa Phillips knows them all too well. In this book of 52 devotions, she shares her journey of coming to peace with loving an addict. Just like all of us, at her crisis point she turned to the Bible and read the Gospel stories. She noticed that what she'd heard at 12-step meetings complemented the insights she found in the Gospels. Phillips' authentic reflections and prayers will help you find hope and strength to cope with your challenges.
