E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 inspectors, 18 of whom are stationed here at the Highgate location. Six smaller locations report to this facility. During fiscal year 2000, over 1 million applicants for entry were processed at the Highgate location itself. n Immigration inspectors are trained and tasked with determining admissibility of applicants for admission in a fair, consistent and timely fashion. The great majority of applicants at land border ports of entry are admitted after questioning in their vehicle by an Immigration or a Customs officer, and a review of their documents and their demeanor, and other such aspects. Individuals deter-mined to need further questioning prior to a determination of their admissibility are directed into the port of entry for further ques-tioning and further processing by another officer. Since the tragic events of September 11, 2001, the ports of entry have have been placed on the highest security alert. The alert en-tails more extensive inspections, closer scrutiny of individuals, their documentation, and their vehicles. Inspectors have been asked to work longer hours in order to increase presence at the border and to process traffic timely. Others have been detailed to other locations to assist in traffic management. The INS and Customs have a special relationship, because of our shared responsibilities at ports of entry. We work closely at all lev-els, exchanging information, and assigning personnel as needed to manage traffic. The Border Patrol is an essential element in the border area, since its agents control the areas between the des-ignated ports of entry. Canada is also a full and important partner...
