He speaks into the wind hoping someone will help him piece together his fleeting memories so that he can take flight into a new realm. Unaware of the moment of his death, he wastes away with each passing day, not knowing he needs a rescuer before the lessons of his life fade away and he plunges forever into a dark chasm. Inspired by a writer's true experiences living near Grand Canyon, Thunderbird Walking is an autobiographical novel laced with mystical horror and magical realism. This literary book tells an eclectic ghost story that takes the reader on a spiritual journey that stretches from North Carolina to Arizona and into the depths of one man's psyche.
