The statute expressly prohibits, or forbids, a physician or surgeon from testifying to certain matters. Nelson: This doctor don t testify to any conversation between this man and him. The Court: It is not a question of whether it is a conversation. It is information that he obtained by virtue of his relation to the party. Nelson: Not at all. He took down the conversation between Mr. Goodwin and this man. The Court: I don t think a physician can do that. Nelson: I offer the deposition and offer to read it. Whitla: I make the further objection that there is no showing that Dr. Didier is not within the reach of the court. The Court: I will sustain the objection to the deposition. Nelson: I offer in evidence the deposition of Dr. Didier, together with the certificate of Charles L. Lyons, notary public, attached to it, together with the Exhibit A, attached to P.) the deposition, together with notice of taking deposition, stipulation, for taking of deposition, and all the plaintiff s written notations, and seal on the exhibit as they may appear; it being the deposition of Dr. Didier taken under notice. Whitla: I make the same objection. The Court: I have ruled twice on it and I will rule again. Nelson: On what ground? The Court: On all the ground stated. Nelson: I did not get the ground. The Court: They are stated in...
