An invisible red thread connects those who are destined to meet, regardless of time, place or circumstances. The thread may stretch or tangle, but will never break. - early Chinese belief This art book of beautiful images by celebrated artist Soizick Meister is the second book about Mr. M, a mysterious and imaginative dreamer. Arcane, evocative words and rich language are used to tell this new tale of Mr. M who has recently been liberated from heavy memories and uncertainties, (struggles he overcame in Mr. M and the Exploring Dreamer). But now he realizes he is still missing something: compainonship. Mr. M, remembering someone who he loved long ago and lingers still in his mind, he sends her messages. Using the early Chinese idiom of the red thread - the connection linking humanity to one another, as inspiration, Mr. Ms messages take the form of mystical red threads. However, messages never take the place of meeting face-to-face, and ultimately, Mr. M must embark to reconnect with her in person.
