Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: .of the officials of the Western Maryland Railroad Company. If it has, then the rental account should be charged with the full amount of the coupons and the State of Pennsylvania credited with its proportion, to be in turn debited when the payment was made. The practice has been to burn the coupons and for a committee of the directors to so certify, but unless these certificates can be found no adjustment of this account is possible, save by a process of deduction, the evidences in the coupons themselves being destroyed. We are thus left to the inference that all may possibly have been paid, but inference is not correct accounting. ACCRUED TAXES TO SEPTEMBER 30th, 1892. INCREASE, $9,260.03. Based on the taxes paid in the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1891, I estimate that the above sum had accrued up to September 30th, 1892, the details of 4which also appear in the statement of liabilities. BILLS PAYABLE--DECREASE, $1,500. This was for a note of that amount issued to HcClernan, and when paid, charged, not to bills payable, but to Western Maryland Railroad terminal property, in error. It is treated of in my analysis of the cash balance of $43,364.76. BALTIMORE AND HARRISBURG RAILWAY WESTERN EXTENSION--INCREASE OF $17,000. This represents the unpaid notes of that company issued to contractors for the completion of its road, and the amount is here brought to light in the account current, as a matter for your information, but shouldn't appear...
