Papua Pilot

By Paul Westlund

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 138 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.5in. Paul Westlund lived an adventure that most men only dream, combining great skill with deep faith to meet the challenges of jungle aviation. What caused this pilot to risk his life, day after day, for twenty-five years, to help the last and the least of the peoples of the earth? What dangers did he face? What obstacles did he overcome? And what price was he willing to pay? These are the questions Paul Westlund answered in the memoir he was concluding days before his final flight. Each chapter, ripped straight from his logbooks, gives the reader a pilots-eye view of flying and faith on the far side of the world. Praise for PAPUA PILOT: You will enjoy Paul Westlunds stories - I'm sure they will captivate you as they have captivated me. Steve Saint, author of End of the Spear. Gods Word was precious cargo in Paul Westlunds life. He translated the truths of scripture into actions as he served others. Pauls accounts of difficult choices, hard lessons learned and Gods love and grace at work in and through his life remind us that Gods plan...
